

Green Ixworth

Special: Mid-June 2024

www.greenixworth.org

Churchyard Management course

Wednesday, July 10th, 10am-4pm

At St Mary's Church, Ixworth IP31 2HH

Discover how churchyards can be havens for wildlife and ways you can help them continue to thrive, with Cathy Smith, conservation adviser with Suffolk Wildlife Trust. Learn about Eco Church, biodiversity and how to support both wildlife and people in churchyards

Tickets £20

Booking essential tel: 01473 890 089 or book online

www.suffolkwildlifetrust.org/wildlearning

Suffolk
Wildlife Trust

Refreshments will be provided but you will need to take a picnic lunch. There are a few bookings already from the previous course but still space left. This has been put on largely at our request as the previous course was booked up early on. Go to:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/churchyard-management-ewc1806-community-tickets-923684183257>

Come join Green Ixworth at our stall. Listen to a great variety of folk from local singers to national names. Refreshments, a bar, etc.

<https://www.buryfolkfestival.co.uk/>

A promotional poster for the Bury Folk Festival. The top half features a dark green background with white text. The bottom half features a photograph of a festival scene with people, tents, and trees, overlaid with a dark red and green graphic design. The text is arranged in several sections: 'Bury Folk Festival' in a large font on the left, 'SATURDAY 29TH JUNE 2024' and '10:30AM - 9:30PM' on the right, 'BURY FOLK FESTIVAL' in a large, bold, distressed font in the center, and the venue address 'NOWTON PARK WALLED GARDENS BURY ROAD BURY ST EDMUNDS IP29 5LU' in a smaller font at the bottom right.

Bury Folk Festival

SATURDAY 29TH
JUNE 2024

10:30AM - 9:30PM

BURY FOLK FESTIVAL

NOWTON PARK
WALLED GARDENS
BURY ROAD
BURY ST EDMUNDS
IP29 5LU